Dr.

Dear

Reference is made to your contract with the United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, effective 21 January 1957.

Effective 21 January 1957, said contract is amended by deleting the third sentence of paragraph one (1) entitled "Compensation" which reads:

"Upon the satisfactory completion and submission of said report you will receive a $300 payment."

and substituting in lieu thereof the following sentence:

"Upon the submission of a satisfactory progress report, you will receive the remainder of said fee."

All other terms and conditions of the contract, as amended, remain in full force and effect.

You will please indicate your approval by signing in the space provided below.

Dear Dr.

The United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, hereby contracts with you for the submission of a medical report, the subject matter of which has or will be made known to you, under the following terms and conditions:

1. Compensation. In full consideration for the submission of said report, you will be paid a $500 fee. Two hundred dollars ($200) of said fee will be paid you upon the execution of this contract by the Contracting Officer. Upon the satisfactory completion and submission of said report you will receive a $300 payment. No Federal income tax will be withheld from this fee, but it will be your responsibility to report such income under existing Federal income tax laws and regulations. The Central Intelligence Agency stands ready to assist you as to the method to be followed in reporting this fee on your Federal income tax return in order to preserve security.

2. Execution of Documents. If, in the performance of services under this contract, you assume the custody of Government funds or take title of record to property of any nature whatsoever and wherever situated, which property has in fact been purchased with monies of the U. S. Government, you hereby recognize and acknowledge the existence of a trust relationship, either express or constructive, and you agree to execute whatever documents may be required by CIA to evidence this relationship.

3. Status. You are not an employee of the United States Government under this agreement and are not entitled to any benefits normally incident to an employee status.

4. Secrecy. You will be required to keep forever secret this contract and all information which you may obtain by reason hereof (unless released in writing by CIA from such obligation), with full knowledge that violation of such secrecy may subject you to criminal prosecution under the Espionage Laws, dated 25 June 1948, as amended, and other applicable laws and regulations.

5. Instructions. Instructions received by you from CIA in briefings, training or otherwise are a part of this contract and are incorporated herein, provided that such instructions are not inconsistent with the terms hereof.

6. Unauthorized Commitments. No promises or commitments pertaining to gifts, gratuities or benefits other than those expressly mentioned in writing in this agreement or any amendment thereto shall be binding on the Government.

7. Term. This contract is effective as of _____ and will continue thereafter through 31 March 1967 unless sooner terminated by mutual notice to you from CIA, or until the report is submitted, whichever occurs earlier. Termination of this agreement will not release you from the obligations of any security oath you may be required to take.
